

Better Valley Health

Fresno County: Lowest employer contribution towards employee-only healthcare coverage in Central Valley

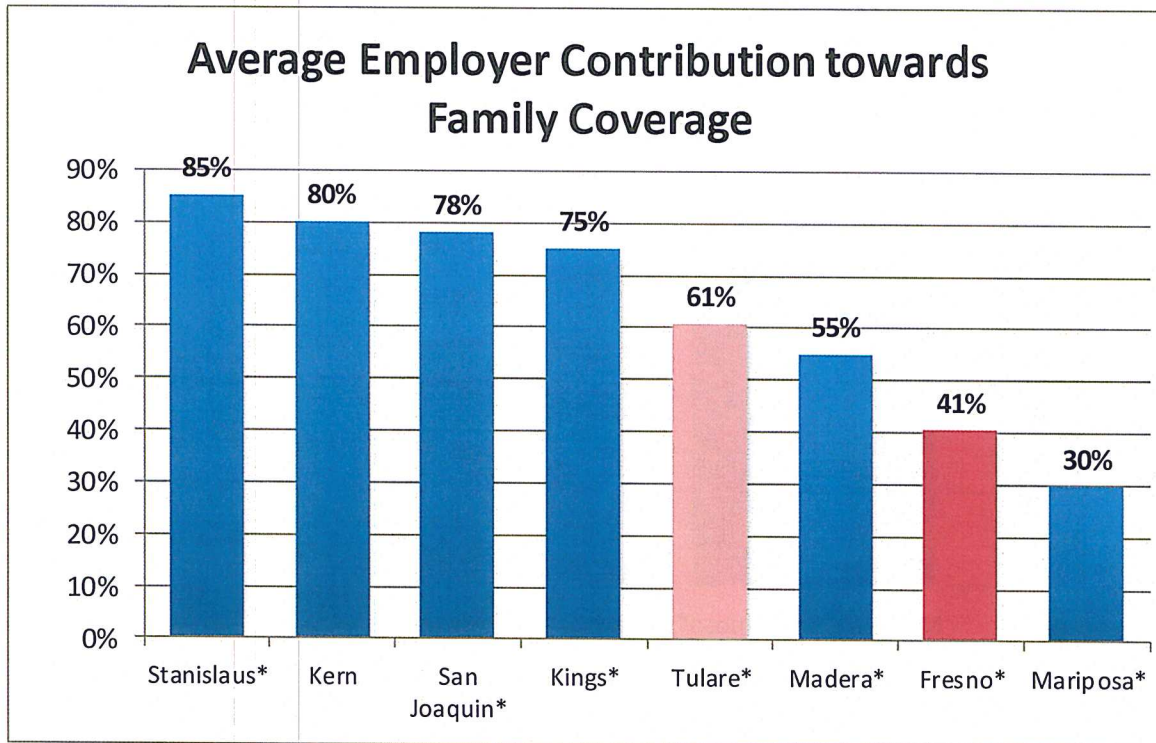

*Average of all plan options

Better Valley Health is a coalition of public workers coming together to advocate for affordable, accessible, quality health care for everyone in the Central Valley.

Protect Families with Affordable Health Coverage

Low employer contribution makes family coverage out of reach for Tulare and Fresno county workers. Only 4% of workers in Tulare County opt for family coverage.

*Average of all plan options

If the new rates are approved, a Tulare County Social Services Worker at the highest salary step would pay 32 percent of their salary to enroll in Anthem PPO $1,000 family coverage.

If the new rates are approved, a Fresno County Eligibility Worker at the highest salary step would pay 25 percent of their salary to enroll in Blue Cross HMO family coverage.