Section 101150 of the Health and Safety Code and Section 1075 of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations require local health departments to have available the services of an official public health laboratory. The purpose of the Public Health Laboratory is to detect the presence of disease producing agents which have the potential to adversely affect the public health. The Public Health Laboratory continually strives to implement new technologies that reduce disease transmission, morbidity, and treatment costs, as well as cooperative arrangements to maximize utilization of County resources.

The Public Health Laboratory actively participates in proficiency programs and is accredited by the State of California Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Program (ELAP), the Environmental Protection Agency, and is certified by the State of California Department of Food and Agriculture.

Both human and environmental specimens are accepted and tested in order to detect organisms and chemicals which may threaten the health of the community. In addition to testing specimens in support of Department of Community Health programs, the Public Health Laboratory tests specimens from hospitals, other County departments, other governmental entities, private physicians, penal institutions, private clinics, water systems, businesses, and private individuals.

The information generated by this testing is furnished to other agencies and departments to be used for the purpose of monitoring infectious disease outbreaks and environmental threats to the public's health. This information can then be used to plan containment strategies and also assess the effectiveness of various health education programs.

(BILLING/COST CENTER # 56201606)

Services for Hepatitis and Tuberculosis (TB) testing, and Refugee Health were formerly provided in separate locations. During 1997-1998, these services were consolidated into the Health Screening and Prevention Program. One significant change includes the separation of TB skin testing services from the Chest Clinic. In addition, this change has facilitated an increase in the demand for occupational blood-borne exposure services and post exposure treatment to rabies, meningitis and other infectious diseases. The Health Screening and Prevention unit provides screening and prevention services which have recently been consolidated into one centralized location within the Department of Community Health. The consolidated Health Screening and Prevention Program provides refugee screening, tuberculosis skin testing and preventive follow-up, and preventive treatment and consultation for individuals who have been exposed, or are at risk, of blood borne exposure. Refugee screening services consist of diagnostic testing, physical exam, health history, immunizations, referral to specialty and primary care providers and follow-up activity. This change in service delivery provides physical separation of clients waiting for screening and prevention services from clients who are waiting to receive treatment services in the Chest and Specialty Clinics. The Chest and Specialty Clinics will continue to provide treatment services for patients with active disease.

- 4) Chest Clinic, 1221 Fulton Mall, Fresno, CA 93721. Phone: (559) 445-3413, Fax: (559) 445-3598. (BILLING/COST CENTER # 56201650)

The Chest Clinic provides services for the detection, prevention and treatment of TB, specifically, skin testing, chest x-rays, preventive treatment, and diagnosis of an active disease. The clinic also operates a Directly Observed Therapy outreach unit which monitors and ensures patient compliance with the prescribed treatment plan.

The State and Federal government have established priorities and objectives which are designed to address the highest priorities in TB control: (1) The first priority is to identify persons who have active TB cases and ensure that they complete appropriate therapy, including using confinement measures in exceptional cases; (2) The second priority is to find and screen persons who have been in contact with TB patients to determine whether they have TB infection or disease and provide them with appropriate treatment, and (3) The third is to screen high-risk populations to detect persons who are identified with Multiple Drug Resistant TB.

There were 115 new cases of TB identified for calendar year (CY) 2003, 103 new cases of TB were identified in CY 2004.

- 5) Early Intervention Program (EIP), 1221 Fulton Mall, Fresno, CA 93721. Phone: (559) 445-3409, Fax: (559) 445-3459. (BILLING/COST CENTER # 56201649)

The Early Intervention Program provides managed, preventive health care to HIV-infected persons before their HIV infection has progressed to symptomatic AIDS. The goals of the EIP are to delay the onset of symptoms associated with HIV, to promote healthy and beneficial lives for those with HIV, and to minimize the chances that HIV-positive individuals could infect others. The goals of the EIP are accomplished through physical examinations, psycho-social assessments and counseling, health education, risk-reduction education, and through the case management of the HIV-infected clients. The EIP is funded through the State Office of AIDS.

- 6) Drug Alcohol Testing, 1221 Fulton Mall, Fresno, CA 93721. Phone: (559) 445-3598, Fax: (559) 445-3459. (BILLING/COST CENTER #: 56201639 and 56202082)

HIV counseling and screening services are provided to individuals who are currently participating in drug/alcohol treatment programs, both residential as well as outpatient programs. The program is supported through an Inter-Departmental Agreement with the Substance Abuse Division. DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES

- 1) Youth Offender Program, 3147 N. Millbrook, Fresno, CA 93703. Phone: (559) 445-8405, Fax: (559) 495-3857. (BILLING/COST CENTER # 56402255)

Mental Health will contract to provide services for youth sex offenders and youth domestic violence offenders detained at the Juvenile Justice Campus and the Elkhorn Boot Camp. Services will be tailored specific to each program: Youth Sex Offender Program and Youth Domestic Violence Program.
